

July 24, 1990

Dear Norman, Gloria & Rhonda,

I'm finally getting around to writing. I would have written before but this week has been pretty hectic.

Thanks very much for all the lovely hospitality. I just hope we didn't spoil your Saturday to bed.

We just love your beautiful new home. It's just great & we're so happy for you.

How was your trip to Spakon? Did you have fun? How'd your Jello ¹²³ turn out? I made some,

but it didn't tear out very well. Oh well, that's just me I guess

I know this is very short but I did want to thank you for the hospitality.
I need to go to town & buy ~~so more paper~~, I'm running out. Next time I'll write a longer
letter I promise.
Tell everyone hi & send our love.

Chad's still not walking

Yours
Connie
Alan & Chad

P.S. Hurry & write

I love to hear from you & Hurry & let me know when you guys are to miss out. Hurry & come