

Tuesday

Dear Norman,

This paper is not the most ideal for letter writing, but it will have to do. I bought some stationery just the other day, I can't seem to find it anywhere. I'm always losing something!

I received your letter this morning thanks for writing. I usually don't answer quite this fast, but I've changed my plans a little. I'm catching the train at 6<sup>30</sup> PM this evening and will arrive in Wichita around 2<sup>00</sup> AM. That will put me home a day early. Any time you want to get together let me know. I have missed you "a little" — I don't know
