Dear Norman,

I received your letter this morning, and upon reading the first paragraph, I came to the conclusion that you must be punished for not writing sooner. (Ten fold)!

So my hat looks good on your "DOG"? I'm glad you told me. I might just give it to him.

I would also like to do something this weekend, but it's up to you, to decide what. Why don't you call me at 7<sup>30</sup> pm. Friday. We can surely think of something! Bowling, maybe?

My sunburn gave me a lot of trouble for the pass three days, but it's "all better now." I hope you're still peeling, so I can have something to do this weekend. Ha! I wouldn't mind going swimming again, that was fun.

There hasn't been anything exciting happening around here this week. We are having a picnic tonight out at the Hawsey County Park. It will naturally turn out to be a "party." I don't think I'll stay. Ha!

Well, I want to get this in the mail, so I'll close for now —

Truly yours,
Connie
