Dear Norman,

Here it is Thursday and I'm just getting around to writing. No excuses — you know me too well. Ha!

I hope you made it home without any flat tires, motor troubles, etc. You really should get a "Chevy." (Then I would have no worries.)

Believe it or not, I have been very good since Sunday. I've been working everyday and last ~~at~~ night until 9:15 pm. Tonight I'm going to Newton with Jean, but I promise not to get into any trouble.

I get this Saturday off, so I will be home tomorrow night. Chris & Jean are coming home with me. I wasn't too happy with this, but it might be fun.

If you have time and want too, you can call me some time Saturday. It will probably be around 7<sup>00</sup> pm when we come back Sat. night.

Well, that's about it, so I'll close for now—

Always,

Connie

P.S. Now it's your turn to write — "Porky."
