

April 22, 1963
Fort Bliss, Texas

Ronald

I have decided to write to Mom and dad, to you, and to Alan separately. This will enable me to write one, fairly decent long letter rather than three short ones. So any news that would be of interest to the rest of the family, pass it on to them.

When I go hunting, I go out on the desert. About the only game we see is rabbits, lizards, and birds. About one-hundred miles north of here, in the mountains of New Mexico, there are deer.

I enjoyed "The Longest Day." However it is somewhat overrated. Next Thursday, I am going to see some authentic films showing the D-day landings and other phases of the war. Some of these